Introducing Our New Program . . .

Walking Together

We have been piloting a successful coaching program for teachers and staff ministers. We're strengthening and supporting them so they can serve with purpose, passion, and resilience.

How does Walking Together work?

- GIA coaches teachers and staff ministers in both one-on-one relationships and cohorts.
- GIA provides tools for self-evaluation, good habits, ownership as a Christian leader, relationships, productivity, and followership. One such tool: CliftonStrengths®—an assessment tool that helps ministry leaders identify and apply their personal gifts.
- GIA offers encouragement and accountability in spiritual, emotional, and physical health and resiliency so called workers can be at their best for the Savior they serve.
