We know that figuring out planned gifts can be overwhelming. What's the ideal way to support the ministries you love?

WELS Foundation can assist you in using your blessings to be a blessing to others—based on your unique situation, finances, and giving goals.

We can help you give . . .

- to support ministry right now
- to support ministry in the future or after Jesus calls you home
- to support ministry on an ongoing, perpetual basis
- while supporting ministry and receiving a retirement income for life
- in the most tax-efficient way so more of your blessings support ministry
